HENDERSON Co., Kr., July 1, '58.

Mesers. Eprrons : On last Friday the Hon.

G. R. Mckee made a speech to some of the citizens of this county, at Henderson. As I am not a political correspondent, I shall forbear giving anything like a synopsis of his remarks;

but he poured out the vials of his wrath on the devoted head of our Chief Magistrate, and the entire Democratic party. His peace seems to be a good deal disturbed by that old phantas-magoria so peculiar to a Prentice-the danger of the Union. Yes, the Union is in imminent danger, and its permanency depends on the mighty energy of the American party. I should think it was in danger, sure enough, if such were the case; that is, was dependent on the American party for its existence. But when it has totally failed to keep its own little faction within the bonds of its primitive discipline, the query naturally arises how is it going to perpetuate the institutions of thirty-two States? Most assuredly not by the most influential of its members voting with the Black Republicans.

It would be a very good thing for the Demo-crats of this county if Mr. McKee would again KNOW THIS TO BE TRUE, because it is my own case. I have been for a long time afflicted sorely with this abborrent disease. The best medicained had been employed to no useful purpose. I met with Dr. Price of this city, and told him my condition. After examination, he told me he conidence me, and I consented to masking a trial, and he cit so. He has need no manufactured and vigor in the spice.

LADIES AND GENTLEMEN -We would call our attention to the advertisement of Prof. O. Wood's Hair Restorative, which appears in the columns of our present number.

From our long acquaintance with the pro-prietor, and with numerous individuals who ve used his preparation with perfect success for the last two years, we feel no hesitation in recommending the article as superior to any other preparation now in use for the same purfor restoring gray hair to its original color, a sure and perfect cure for baldness, an never failing preventive for the falling of the

It is decidedly the best and most popular i use for beautifying, preserving, restoring, and strengthening the hair, relieving diseases of the ekin, and removing sourf, dandruff, and all eruptions and fermish heat from the scalp.

We speak a relation to the above from what with numerous persons who have used the Re-storative for the above purposes with the most gratifying results.

It is not often we notice a patent medicine indeed we think we have never puffed one before: but Prof. Wood's Hair Restorative is some thing so superior to most of the preparations of the day, that we cannot forbear asking the attention of our readers to it .- Catholic Vindicator Sold by all good Druggists. jyl deod12&w2 as well as your correspondent. The farmers generally are through cutting their small grain, and some of them have been very agreeably disappointed in finding it much better than they expected.

At this time there is very little said in regard to politics in this county. John C. Monfort (the old true-blue Jeffersonian Democrat) will be elected County Judge, over his opponent (W. A. Perry, the Piug-Ugly candidate) by an overwhelming majority. Edmond P. Thomas, who has a world-wide reputation as a good efficient Clerk, will defeat his opponent, Morgan Pearce, badly. Mr. Pearce is a good Democrat; but he is, in my humble judgment, undoubtedly pursuing a very anti-Democratic course in making the race against Thomas, the nominee of the Democratic party. He suffered his name to go before the County Convention, and, according to true Democratic doctrine, are the table of the county of the co his name to go before the County Convention, and, according to true Democratic doctrine, ought to abide the decision of said convention. It is to be hoped that he will yet recede from his position at this time; for it will be but the rashness of folly for him to contend with the nominee. Pearce is a young man of fine talent and excellent qualifications; but, nevertheless, he had better await the "coming of his time." In that emancipation sheet, the "Courier," of the 5th inst., I notice a communication from this county, over the signature of "Franklinton," in which the author makes a few assertions ton," in which the author makes a few assertions which are directly at open war with the truth. He says there are a few anti-Lecompton men who openly avow and confess that they do not yish to see another slave State admitted into who openly avow and confess that they do not wish to see another slave State admitted into the Union. Honest confession, indeed; but let me inform you that the assertion is as false as it is simple; for who can suppose for a moment that there is in the county of "Old Henry" an anti-Lecompton, or a Lecompton Democrat.

standing by him, let the consequences he what they may.

We anti-Lecomptonites in this county regret very much to see so much discord and difference of opinion in the great "Democratic family."

But we have no apologies to offer; we have thrown no firebrand, and have, as we honestly believe, like you and all other opposers of the "Lecompton swindle," pursued an honest, straight-forward course. We have too much of the fire and spirit of our great leader (Stephen A. Douglas) in us, not to show fight when we are attacked by such miserable, degraded epecimene of humanity as this correspondent of

"Couldn't Afford It."—Some months since, on the corner of Nassau and Spruce streets, a beggar had taken his stand, and day after day asked alms of all who passed. A gentleman, who was engaged in superintending the construction of a new building, thought the beggar looked like an able-bodied man, and went over and asked him if he would not like to work, and offered him a dollar a day. To his surprise the beggar replied—"I couldn't afford to work for that price." "Why not?" was the answer.
